

In this issue

The Alzheimer's Association is a national, voluntary health organization that is working to eliminate Alzheimer's disease through the advancement of research; to provide and enhance care and support for all affected; and to reduce the risk of dementia through the promotion of brain health. www.alz.org, 800-272-3900

The Center for Family Studies was founded in 1990 at the University of California, Riverside, to research and disseminate new advances in knowledge about the contemporary family. <http://familystudies.ucr.edu>, 951-827-3396

The Children of Divorce Intervention Program is a school-based support group using a curriculum designed to enhance adjustment to divorce for children from kindergarten to eighth grade. www.childrensinstitute.net/programs/CODIP, 585-295-1000

The Council on Contemporary Families aims to increase communication among family researchers and practitioners from many different fields, and to help the press and public to access accurate information and best-practice findings about how today's families work. www.contemporaryfamilies.org, 312-996-3074

Equally Shared Parenting is the cyber-home for fathers and mothers who have made (or wish to make) a conscious decision to share equally in the raising of their children, household chores, breadwinning, and time for recreation. www.equallysharedparenting.com

The Family Caregiver Alliance was the first community-based nonprofit organization in the country to address the needs of families and friends providing long-term care at home. It now offers programs at national, state, and local levels to support and sustain caregivers. www.caregiver.org, 415-434-3388

The Gottman Institute is dedicated to combining wisdom from research and practice to support and strengthen marriages, families, and relationships. It applies leading-edge research on marriage in a practical, down-to-earth therapy and trains therapists committed to helping couples. www.gottman.com, 888-523-9042

The National Alliance for Caregiving is a nonprofit coalition of national organizations focusing on issues of family caregiving, created to conduct research, do policy analysis, develop national programs, and increase public awareness of family caregiving issues. <http://www.caregiving.org>

Research sources

The Center for Ethical Education at the University of Notre Dame fosters scholarship and develops resources to promote ethical growth in education, sports, and media. <http://cee.nd.edu>, 574-631-4453

The Center for Law and Social Policy (CLASP) is a national nonprofit that works to improve the economic security, educational and workforce prospects, and family stability of low-income parents, children, and youth, and to secure equal justice for all. CLASP conducts cutting-edge research, provides insightful policy analysis, advocates at the federal and state levels, and offers information and technical assistance on a range of family policy and equal justice issues for federal, state, and local policymakers, advocates, researchers, and the media. www.clasp.org, 202-906-8000

The International Association for the Study of Cooperation in Education is an international nonprofit organization for educators who research and practice cooperative learning, in which students work in teams on problems and projects under conditions that assure both positive interdependence and individual accountability. www.iasce.net

In the field

The Caring Institute believes that the solution to most problems is the caring of one human being for another. The Caring Institute celebrates those special individuals who, in transcending self, devote their lives in service to the disadvantaged, the poor, the disabled, and the dying. www.caringinstitute.org, 202-547-4273

The Center for Courage & Renewal helps foster personal and professional renewal through retreats that offer the time and space to reflect on life and work. Their retreats are led by skilled facilitators and make use of poetry and stories, solitude, reflection, and deep listening. www.couragerenewal.org, 206-855-9140

Children of Lesbians and Gays Everywhere engages, connects, and empowers people to make the world a better place for children of lesbian, gay, bisexual, and/or transgender parents and families. www.colage.org, 415-861-5437

Dads & Daughters improves the lives of fathers, daughters, and their families with outstanding educational resources supporting fathers' involvement in girls' lives and advocacy for girls' well-being. www.dadsanddaughters.org

Kiva helps individuals loan money to private, small businesses in developing countries. Sponsors pick who to loan to, get updates on the businesses they invest in, and get their money back at the end of the loan period. www.kiva.org

The Mothers Movement Online delivers high quality content on mothers' issues and provides other online sources related to motherhood as a social issue, including research and news articles on care work, paid work, family life, and public policy. www.mothersmovement.org

Psychologists Acting with Conscience Together works to raise awareness, promote action for social justice and well-being, and hold the helping professions accountable to social ethics. www.psyact.org